

US Army Warrant Officers are technical experts, combat leaders, trainers, and advisors who specialize, through-out an entire career, in a specific technical area. The US Army Warrant Officer cohort comprises less than three percent of the total US Army strength. Although small in size, the level of responsibility is immense and only the very best are selected to become US Army Warrant Of-ficers. The Warrant Officer serves as the technical and tactical experts, as the leader of a team, and are highly trained in their field.

As of 2019, the Montana Army National Guard (MTARNG) has Warrant Officer positions in over 17 (soon to be 19) different specialty fields representing 8 Branches.
